

MICHAEL ANDREW GRIFFITH

Michael Andrew Griffith is a songwriter and guitarist whose music blends indie and psychedelic folk with delicate, classical-inspired compositions. His intricate fingerpicking and ethereal vocals weave through themes of loss and longing, transforming pain into beauty and meaning. Drawing on the emotional depth of mythic and cosmic imagery, his songs invite listeners into an introspective space where sorrow and healing coexist. Michael's sound is a journey of inner exploration, where emotion takes precedence over words, and the music speaks directly to the heart.

'WOODS OF ERROR' EP (released November 20th, 2024)

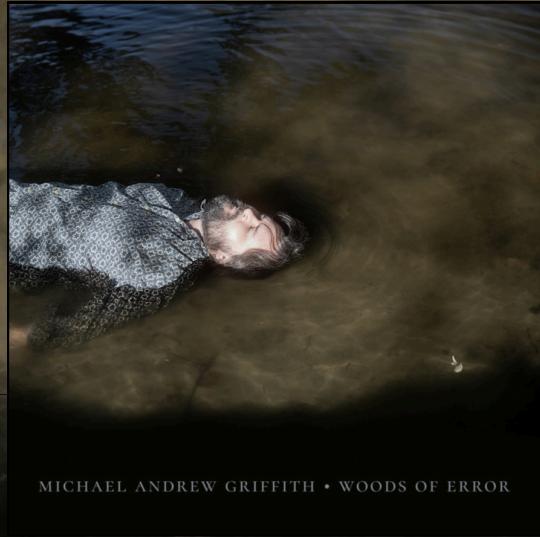

♪ Woods of Error • ♪ I Am the Arrow • ♪ Martyr of The Sun

Woods of Error is a raw, deeply personal EP exploring grief, healing, and transformation. Inspired by the loss of a lover to suicide and drawing from sources like Dante's Inferno and Orpheus and Eurydice, the songs weave themes of love, loss, and renewal.

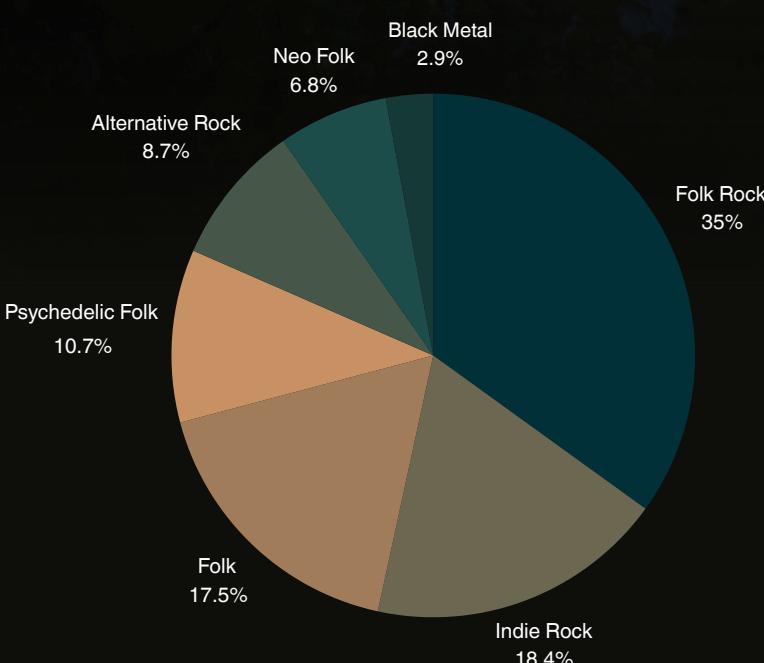

Rooted in Michael Griffith's intricate guitar work in alternate tunings, the stripped-down production by Mark Kramer (Shimmy Disc) adds an ethereal touch. This release offers catharsis through its honesty and beauty, reflecting closure and the desire to share a deeply emotional journey.

"Woods of Error is a stirring success — an enveloping folk EP that traverses grief and tentative optimism with sincerity, poetic lyricism, and gorgeous no-frills production."
